Sir/Madam,

I am directed to invite your attention to the subject cited above and to say that the Hon'ble High Court of H.P. while deciding CWPIIL 133 of 2017 on 14-11-2017 has directed to provide a mechanism for enabling the employee to vent out their grievances of non-disbursement of due and admissible wages/salaries/emoluments.

2. Accordingly, in compliance to Hon'ble Court directions and enabling the employees to vent out their grievances of non-disbursement of due and admissible wages/salaries/emoluments, the following mechanism is set up and it is impressed upon:

i) The Manav Sampada Application (admin.hp.nic.in/genpmis) being used for Personnel Management provides option to lodge grievances by employees. Submitted grievances will be made available to the Administrative Secretary and Head of the Department of concerned department for redressal. The Head of Department should regularly log into the Manav Sampada SW to check new grievances and take appropriate action as detailed in next paras.

ii) The grievance/complaint so made shall immediately be processed by the Administrative Department and adequately responded by the Head of Department of the concerned department/organization within a period of one week from the date of lodging the complaint/grievance.
