Dear Sir,

National Institute of Disaster Management (NIDM) is a premier institute of Government of India for human resource development, training, capacity building, applied research, implementation and dissemination of information and knowledge for holistic disaster risk reduction and management. Recognizing the need for involving various stakeholders in building capacity for responding as well as mitigation of disasters, National Institute of Disaster Management, New Delhi, proposes to conduct a "Training Programme on Disaster Management" for National Cadet Corps (NCC) from 28th August -1st September, 2017 at its campus in New Delhi. The aim of the programme is to sensitize the the NCC officers with knowledge and skills on various aspects of disaster risk reduction with a focus on youths, particularly the NCC cadets.

2. The target group for this programme would be Associate NCC officers (ANOs) from colleges and other NCC officers from the States. You are requested to kindly facilitate nominations of various ANOs from colleges as well as NCC officers across the State for attending this training programme. The travel expenses of participants would be borne by the nominating agency, while boarding, lodging arrangements and training expenses shall be met by the NIDM.

3. Nominations in the prescribe performa (enclosed) may be sent to the course coordinator Dr Ajinder Walia, Assistant Professor, Policy, Planning and Cross cutting Division, (Mobile: 9911545497) by fax (011-23702442/46) or email at ajinderw@gmail.com latest by 20th August, 2017.

With warm regards

Yours Sincerely,

(Rajesh Kumar Singh)
