Please refer to this office letter of even number-17971-17984 dated 18.09.2024 on the above-cited subject.

A communiqué has been received from the District Ayush Officers that the funds for the establishment of herbal gardens in schools could not be released to few schools due to non-availability of adequate space for setting up of these herbal gardens in view of the guidelines issued vide above said letter.

In this regard please find enclosed herewith a list of 136 schools duly vetted by the Education Department where herbal gardens can be established and their GIS mapping has also been done by the SMPB.

It is, therefore, directed that the schools for setting up of herbal gardens may be selected from the enclosed list fulfilling the conditions as per guidelines issued vide above said letter. If again it is not possible to select the schools from the list then the concerned Deputy Director of Education Department may be requested to indicate alternative locations as replacement of these schools.
