Subject: To constitute Hostel NMBA committees in higher education institutions.

Sir,

It is to convey you that during the 4th review meeting of implementation of National Action Plan for Drug Demand Reduction (NAPDDR) schemes held on 25.10.2024 under the Chairpersonship of Joint Secretary (Social Defense) Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment to the GoI directed State to formation of Hostel NMBA Committees in all higher education institution.

The formation of Hostel Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyan (NMBA) Committees in all higher education institutions, as part of the larger Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyan, aims to create a drug-free environment in educational institutions and promote awareness among students about the harmful effects of substance abuse.

The establishment of NMBA Committees in hostels will help in sensitizing students, providing counseling, and implementing preventive measures against drug abuse. These committees should include representatives from the student body, hostel management, faculty, and mental health professionals, who can work together to monitor and address issues related to substance abuse, promote healthy lifestyles, and create a supportive environment for students.

In this regard you are requested to issue necessary instructions for the formation of Hostel Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyan (NMBA) Committees in all higher education institutions across the state and send the desired information to this Directorate.

Yours faithfully,

Kiran Bhadana (IAS)
