To

All the Deputy Director of Higher Education,
 Himachal Pradesh.

Subject: - Regarding submission of audit report by private schools as per provision of the Himachal Pradesh Private Educational Institution (Regulation) Act, 1997.

Memo:

It has come to the notice of the Government that Private Educational Institutions which are running in the state are violating Himachal Pradesh Private Educational Institution (Regulation) Act 1997.

In this connection, you are hereby directed to go through the Act, 1997. It is clearly mentioned in the Himachal Pradesh Private Educational Institution (Regulation) Act, 1997 at Chapter-III clause (10) and (11) envisages that the account of every Private Educational Institution shall be maintained in the manner prescribed and shall be audited at the end of every academic year by a Chartered Accountant and the manager shall, within six months after the end of the Academic year, submit to the competent authority the report of such Chartered Accountant on the audit of the accounts under sub-section (1). But no such reports are being received in this office from private schools.

Further, you are hereby directed to issue necessary direction to all the Principals/Headmasters of private schools to send the Audit report to this directorate regularly. Further, you are also directed to inspect the Private Schools in your district at least once a year and submit a reports to this office regularly. All Schools may be asked to strictly adhere to these instructions.

The action in the matter may be taken on top priority basis. This information must reach this office by 31st October every year.

Addl. Director of Higher Education(C)
