Sub: Requesting to Publicize/Apply - Awarding Innovations by Centre for Innovations in Public Systems - Reg.

Dear Sir,

Greetings from the Centre for Innovations in Public Systems!

Centre for Innovations in Public Systems (CIPS) was set up in 2010 based on the recommendations of the 13th Finance Commission as an autonomous centre of the Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI), Hyderabad by the Government of India. In line with its mandate, CIPS has been working with Central Ministries, State Governments, Union Territories, Administrative Training Institutes (ATIs) and Not-for-Profit organizations to actively promote and disseminate among States/UTs the practice which has resulted in enhanced service delivery, increased efficiency and cost reduction in Public Systems. So far CIPS has documented 507 innovations in the four focus areas viz. Education, e-Governance, Health and Urban Governance.

The Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI), Hyderabad will act as Knowledge Partner. ASCI was established in 1956 at the initiative of the government and the corporate sector. It is an institution of excellence and national importance. Capacity building and applied research assignments constitute the bedrock of the activities of ASCI.

In order to encourage grass root level innovators, CIPS has proposed to Award innovations across Northeastern States, Union Territories, and Hill States in the fields of Education, Environment, Health, Information Technology, and Rural Development.

The details of the awards scheme are enclosed herewith for your kind information.

The online link for filling up the nominations is given as under.

www.cips.org.in/awarding-innovations/

The last date for submitting nominations is 28th February 2023.

We request you to kindly send us the nominations by 28th February 2023.

We look forward to receiving the nominations in the sectors mentioned for the award and replication.

Yours Faithfully,

Valli Manickam
Director, CIPS

Centre for Innovations in Public System (CIPS) was established based on the recommendations of Thirteenth Finance Commission in the year 2010 and is located at Administrative Staff College of India, Hyderabad in order to create a climate for accelerating and diffusing innovations in public systems through sharing of experiences across states. The vision of the centre is to promote innovative culture for transforming creative ideas into sustainable practices and be the catalyst for the transformation of governance in public systems.

Knowledge Partner: The Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI), Hyderabad will act as Knowledge Partner and will support CIPS in implementing the award scheme. The ASCI was established in 1956 at the initiative of the government and the corporate sector. It is an institution of excellence and national importance. Capacity building and applied research assignments constitute the bedrock of the activities of ASCI. It integrates economic, social, cultural, financial, technological, regulatory, human, organizational, and environmental aspects into its management training and action-research initiatives for addressing issues of topical interest and current concern to the government and the industry.

Purpose of awards: CIPS is dedicated to providing a platform for the emergence and cross-fertilization of innovative ideas by identifying, recognizing, promoting, and replicating innovations in public systems. It is therefore expected that by honoring best innovative practices, a hospitable environment will be created by scouting, sustaining, and spawning new innovations that would result in bringing positive changes in culture as well as structure of governance across states.

The awards are segregated on a regional basis (viz. Northeastern States, Union Territories and Hill states) in order to bring out innovations addressing region-specific problems.

North-Eastern States	Union Territories	Hill States
Arunachal Pradesh	Andaman & Nicobar	Himachal Pradesh
Assam	Chandigarh	Uttarakhand
Manipur	Dadar & Nagar Haveli and Diu & Daman
Meghalaya	Delhi
Mizoram	Jammu & Kashmir
Nagaland	Ladakh
Sikkim	Lakshadweep
Tripura	Puducherry

Award Value: A cash prize of Rs. 1.00 Lakh each will be given as mentioned above.
