Subject: - Advisory regarding Coronavirus

Memo;

It is aware to all that the Coronavirus is wreaking havoc in the eastern countries. At the end of 2019, a novel coronavirus, currently designated 2019-nCoV, was identified as the cause of a cluster of pneumonia cases in Wuhan, a city in the Hubei Province of China. It rapidly spread, resulting in an epidemic throughout China, with sporadic cases reported globally.

In this regard, the employees of the department who are going to visit abroad, especially in eastern countries are hereby directed that before joining in the department, the proper medical examination be carried out and submit medical certificate to the respective controlling officer duly issued by the competent authority.

It is also directed to make vide publicity and awareness amongst the students to prevention from Coronavirus by taking special session in the morning assembly or otherwise.

The above instructions may be adhered in letter and spirit.
