Subject: Regarding instructions for executing the Externally Aided Projects (EAPs).

Sir/Madam,

In reference to the implementation/execution of Externally Aided Projects (EAPs), I am to say that the following instructions may be followed in letter and spirit by the respective departments while executing the Externally Aided Projects (EAPs):-

1. Any penal charges or commitment charges arising due to underutilization/non utilization/misutilization/time and cost overruns of the funds approved and sanctioned by the funding agency through the Government of India/State Government or otherwise shall be deducted out of the approved outlays of the executing agency during the financial year in which such penal charges/commitment charges are imposed by the funding agency or the Government of India.
2. An equivalent amount shall also be deducted from the budget estimates of the executing agency of the following financial year.
3. In the circumstance as stated above, the executing agency shall be barred from proposing any proposal for funding through an external funding agency for the next five years from the year of imposition of such charges.
4. The State Government shall not undertake to fund any additional costs beyond the cost approved by the funding agency arising out of time and cost time overruns as mentioned above or any other reason and the executing agency shall be de-incentivized for these overruns as per Sr. No. 1-3 above.

"This has approval of Pr. Secretary (Planning) to the GoHP".

Yours faithfully,

Basu
(Dr. Basu Sood)
Adviser (Planning),
